We're sending this newsletter to highlight how God worked through Campus Evangelism recently! There are more details about the many other things God did this fall at <https://www.facebook.com/SohmerFamily/> or at <http://Luke-15.org/blog/>. Jesus is still seeking and saving the Lost, and that's very exciting!

This is Jack, a young lady who identifies as a Transgender Man. I shared Jesus with Jack last year, and ran into her AGAIN when we started Campus Ministry this Fall! Once again, Jack and I had a very civil and respectful conversation about gender, sexuality, and the Gospel. I emphasized that all people are stained with sin and all people need the Savior. I wanted Jack to know that Jesus is not "off the table" for members of the LGBTQ+ Community. I believe, as with any sin, if someone becomes truly Born Again, the Holy Spirit will work to rescue them from the sin in His perfect timing. Jack's friend, Isabella, showed up and was a little hostile to me, but Jack defended me to her and told her that I was "a good guy." Please pray that God would open a door for my team and I to reach the LGBTQ+ Community with the GREAT NEWS of Jesus Christ!

An Outstanding Thanksgiving Dinner Outreach ended with a horrendous tragedy. I presented the gospel to over 130 people. After the dinner, two people were struck and killed by a train near the church building.

At least one of the two deceased was at the meal and heard the gospel!!! We're hoping that BOTH of them heard and responded to the message with true repentance and faith! Neither one knew their life would literally be over within hours. This is a strong reminder of why we do what we do. We go to where the people are because everyone needs Jesus.

We've been meeting more and more students like D.J. Meeting him was like meeting someone from an unreached people-group. D.J. told me that he had no religious upbringing and has never thought about God. He literally knew nothing about sin, Jesus, the cross, salvation, etc. I took him through the "Good Person Test" to illustrate what sin is. And I was able to share the cross to illustrate what God did. D.J. was very polite and thanked me. He took a gospel booklet. D.J. is a blank-slate when it comes to knowing about the Lord.

We are a faith-based ministry and are 100% reliant on donations from those who support our work.

Due to the recent loss of a large monthly-donor, and the increase in our health insurance, we are approximately $1,000 short every month. Would you join our Ministry Team with a monthly donation?

Would you please consider a one-time end-of-year donation to keep us on the streets talking to those who need to know about Jesus?

You are reaching people for Christ through us. Thank you for your commitment to this ministry!

<http://donate.Luke-15.org> has instructions to join our Ministry Team. Please contact us (603-244-6292 or mark@Luke-15.org) with any questions.

We thank God for you! With love in Christ,
Mark, Shelby, Vivienne, Juliana, Caleb & Gabriella

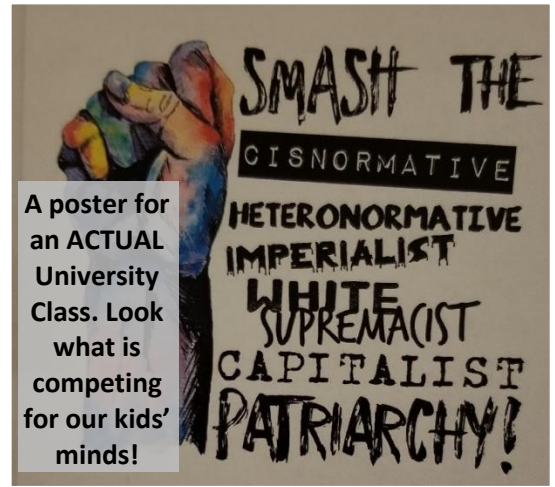

Isabelle is Eastern Orthodox. She knew a lot about sin, but not how to be forgiven. I got to share the GREAT news!

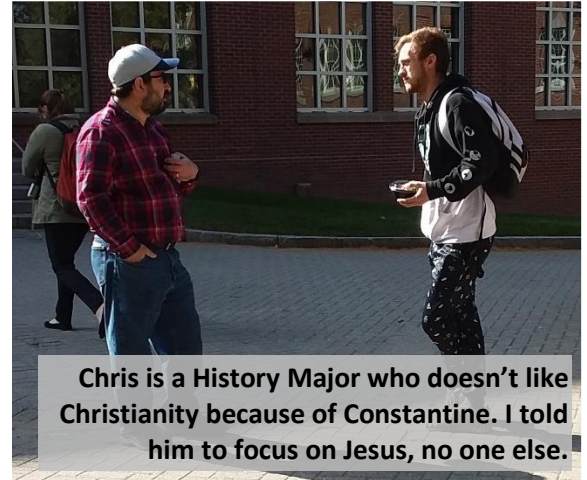

Emma is struggling with same-sex attraction. She let Thad pray for her.

A poster for an ACTUAL University Class. Look what is competing for our kids' minds!

Reaching THOUSANDS of people at a town "Trunk or Treat."

Chris is a History Major who doesn't like Christianity because of Constantine. I told him to focus on Jesus, no one else.

Ian, Jamie, and Devin interviewed me for their Journalism class. They emailed me the final essay and it was polite and contained the gospel message I shared with them! Praise God!

Chris shared Christ with Dwyer for over an hour. We ran into Dwyer again multiple times.

AJ is in high school, but he wasn't intimidated to hand out gospel booklets to people 4 years older than him. He got into one-on-one evangelism too!

Molly eagerly talked with me. She hoped her Catholic rituals would get her to Heaven. I shared with her salvation by grace.

Josh spoke with Ted for a long time and wanted to give his life to Jesus immediately!
